2. WHAT ARE COOKIES AND WHICH TYPES DO WE USE?

2.1 A cookie is a small data file that collects your digital footprint when visiting our websites. Cookies are transferred to your device, tablet, or smartphone when you visit our websites, which enable our websites to recognize your device and remember certain information from your prior visit. A cookie cannot access or collect information stored on your device, nor can a cookie spread a computer virus or cause similar damaging activities.

2.2 At www.blscapital.dk and www.blsinvest.dk, we collect cookies to make our websites more useful and improve the overall user experience, remember your preferences, and generate statistics on how our websites are used. Personal data collected via cookies will only be processed in accordance with the purpose for which the data is collected.

2.3 Your IP address will be processed based on the Company's legitimate interest to provide you with a functional website that provides various stakeholders with relevant information, c.f., the GDPR article 6(1)(f). Furthermore, the Company is required by law to provide the public, co-investors, and supervisory authorities with various information about its business practices, as to why your IP address will be processed on the basis of the GDPR article 6(1)(c).

2.4   The main types of cookies we use on our websites are:

- Necessary cookies which help make the websites usable by enabling essential functions like page navigation and access to secure areas of the websites. Our websites cannot function properly with this type of cookie. These cookies cannot be disabled and do not collect personal data from your device.

- Preference cookies enable our websites to remember information that changes how the website behaves or looks like, such as your preferred language based on the region you are based in.

- Statistic cookies which help our websites understand how you as a visitor interact with the websites by collecting and reporting information anonymously. The information collected is strictly for internal use and is used to improve the websites, for example, to ensure that our websites contain the correct information.

- Persistent cookies that stay on your device after you leave our websites. The purpose of these cookies is to recognize you when you revisit our websites. The cookies will disappear from your device after a set period.

- Session cookies will only be transferred to your device for the duration of your online session. These cookies will disappear from your device when you close our websites.

2.5   In addition, the websites also use first- and third-party cookies. First-party cookies are placed on the websites by the Company, whereas third-party cookies are placed by an external party, such as Google Analytics. We use Google Analytics to help us collect information about the visitors of our websites, track how our websites are used, and generate statistics for internal use.

2.6   Please see appendix 1 for a complete and detailed list of the cookies we use on our websites.

3.   CONSENT TO THE USE OF COOKIES

3.1   Cookies are only placed on your device once you have accepted that the websites may use cookies, except for necessary cookies. Consent to the use of cookies is voluntary. However, it may affect your use of the websites, as they may not function optimally if you refuse the use of cookies.

3.2   You can accept or reject the use of cookies on our websites via the cookie banner. Here you will be presented with the cookies used by our websites, and you can withdraw your consent at any time. Withdrawal of consent will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before the withdrawal.

4. HOW DO YOU DISABLE OR REFUSE COOKIES?

4.1   If you don't want us to place cookies on your device, you can withdraw your consent at any time, as well as disable cookies in your browser. This can be done using the shortcut keys [CTRL]+[SHIFT]+[DELETE] or via the settings in your browser.

4.2   Please see the following guides on how to change your cookie settings:

- Google Chrome

- Apple Safari

- Microsoft Windows

- Mozilla Firefox

- Internet Explorer

5. FURTHER INFORMATION ON COOKIES

5.1   The above information is based on the Statutory Order on Information and Consent Requirements for the Storage of and Access to Information on End-User Terminal Equipment ("Cookie Statutory Order"), which requires websites that make use of cookies to ensure consent from the website user before cookies are put in place.

5.2   You can read more about cookies at:
